Work on Big Ships Held Up by Technical Discussion in Navy.

TRIAL OF HER ENGINES

The Coal Shipments at Newport News During the Month of July Break All Records.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NEWPORT NEWS, VA., August 2.—The dock trial of one of the engines of the armored cruiser West Virginia ended today, and the test is said to have been thoroughly satisfactory. The test of the other engine will begin to-morrow. The vessel has had steam in three of her sixteen boilers for three months, and during the tests six of the boilers are under

Chairman of Board of Overseers of the Poor Will be Allowed a Vote in Case of a Tie.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) PETERSBURG, VA., August 2,-In the Fisher-Gould case it seems unlikely that Judge Mullen will grant the suspending order claimed by counsel for the defenargued in court last night, when Judge Mullen said that if he were certain that a refusal of such an order were within his discretion he would not grant it.

In the matter of a receiver of the Virginia Passenger and Power Company, Judge Mulien said that since the last discussion of the subject in court he had received several suggestions as to a re-ceiver, two of which mentioned the names elver, two of which mentioned the names of prominent citizens of Petersburg. The ourt asked counsel whether or not they ished to make any further suggestions, at no other names were offered.

Mr. N. T. Patteson and Mr. William L. immer were the gentlemen from Persburg whose names were suggested Company, was also suggested. The cou announced that the case would be con sidered again on Thursday morning, and adjourned last night shortly after 10 o'clock.

The Common Council last evening elected Mr. R. D. Budd to the office of city engineer, a position made vacant by the recent death of Captain Thomas R. Dunn. Mr. Budd qualified in his new position this morning.

DEADLOCK BROKEN.

The Council removed the deadlock in the election of a superintendent of the city almshouse by allowing the charman of the board of overseers of the poor a second vote in the event of a tie, which has twice occurred. The Council will meet again on August 25th, when the Mayor's vete of the appropriation of $500 to the Home for the Sick will be considered.

Mayor's veto of the appropriation of $500 to the Home for the Sick will be considered.

A motion was made before Judge Mullen in the Hustings Court this morning in behalf of a faction in the congregation of the Tabernacle Baptist Church, to remove the present trustees of the church, who have been expelled from the congregation. The case was continued until the September term of the Court. Mr. Bernard Mann represented the plaintiffs and Mr. McIlwaine the defendants.

Mr. Fred. L. Temple, a young man of this city has recently invented a very ingenious automatic awning, and has applied for a patent.

CAR ROBBERY.

A Seaboard Air Line freight car at the Duniop Street station, in this city, was robbed on Sunday night of several large tubs of lard and other property.

Sergeant Vaughan and Officers Hubbard and Dyson found the goods in the back yard of the home of an old negro residing on Duniop Street, who said that Albert Jones, colored, had brought the stolen property to the place. Jones was soon arrested by Officers J. P. Stewart, J. J. Heelan and Stevens, and in the Mayor's Court this morning his case was continued until August 15th.

The police found a quantity of flour secreted with the lard. It was learned that the flour was not taken from the car, and it was afterward identified as a brand sold by the Cockade City Mills. Wyatt Wright, a negro employed as a driver at the mills, and Charles Jones, another negro believed to be implicated, have been arrested. Captain Ragiand believes that there are other thleves connected with the case, and is determined to capture the gang.

bringing out of the most damaging evidence against both the accessed parties A Third Party.

A Third Party.

The case against young Dan Wooldridge, son of E. C. Wooldridge, is not well made out, and it is the general impresion that he will be acquitted. Dan is a handsome boy fifteen or sixteen years of age. He attended the trial of his father every day for nearly two weeks. At nights he frequently attended a "holigess" meeting, which was in progress near Buckingham Courthouse at that time, and it was said that he professed sanctification one night while the trial was in progress.

If Dan Wooldridge is proved clear of the crime, a third party is still wanted by the Commonwealth. It has now been clearly shown that the track at the fire which at first was taken for a woman's track, was that of a man with a nice "Sunday" shoe on. No one knows who he could have been.

This case is now the daily topic of conversation everywhere throughout this section. Every store of every town is filled every night with a crowd which discusses this matter. The telephone wires are filled with it. Where hundreds attended the Wooldridge trial in July, signs are that thousands will attend that and the Forbes trial in October.
